A Message from the Headteacher

Dear parents and carers,

Today you will (finally) receive your child's autumn term assessment results. In the envelope you receive, there will be a letter explaining what the scores mean. Teachers have been asked to be ready to provide advice on how to help your child at home and you can do this either informally at the end of the school day, or you may book an appointment at admin@princessmay.hackney.sch.uk. The school, as well as homework, will look to provide resources to support your child further, should you wish to take advantage of this. Again, please speak to your child's class teacher if this is something of interest.

As we enter the final week before half-term next week, the children will be reminded of how to stay safe online. On Tuesday 7th February, children will take part in a live online lesson via the BBC. This lesson is live streamed across the country, with thousands of schools expected to take part. If you would like to see what your child has been learning then please visit: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/safer-internet-day-resources/z6bbhbk>

Have a great weekend.
